Elia Trujillo passed unexpectedly on Tuesday, December 9th, 2008. She is survived by her husband José and her four children Temo, Israel, Enoch and Jovita. Her three sons are all alumni of North Monterey County High School. Temo is currently a teacher and a coach at the school and Jovita is currently a student athlete on the cross country and track teams as well as the ASB Commissioner of Pep and Athletics. The Trujillo family has been a major part of North Monterey County High School for the past 15 years.

We especially would like to welcome the kids from Bardin Elementary where Elia taught and the Trujillo family that will be running with us.
